

Specifically, HIAS' five main program activities are: Weekly legal information trainings for refugees; intake interviews and referral services; Individual legal representation in refugee status determination proceedings and in other protection actions to assist in effective access to social and economic rights; capacity building, coordination and advocacy; and as of August 2017, border monitoring.

PARTNERS

Cenderos

Fundación Mujer

Jesuit Migration Service

LaSalle University

RET International

United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)

