

National Day of Jewish Action for Refugees

Sunday, February 12
NY, DC & Across the Country!

In the face of President Trump's executive order slamming America's doors to refugees, the Jewish community is mobilizing this weekend for the safety and dignity of victims of violence and persecution around the world.

Join us at 11am in New York City at Battery Park, or at one of the many sister actions taking place across the country.

More info: www.hias.org

HIAS

#JewsForRefugees